Dear Josh,

Thank you for your response to our letter about Dad's 100th birthday. He often talks about the Institute, and we have on several occasions asked the library to get material about it for him.

You asked about his rival for his wife's hand; it seems it was Peyton Rous.

You wouldn't remember me, but I took my degree with Dad back in 1940, and then went to Iowa City to teach and be in charge of the diagnostic laboratory for nearly 20 years until I married into the Clark family (I had already been almost a member for years). There in Iowa City, you came through occasionally to say hello to Roger Porter. Roger was one of the finest men I've known.

Sincerely,

Marion Jones Clark
